KRAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HAR-VESTER IS BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME!
ITS utility is beyond comparison with any other farming implement now in use. If takes the seed from the field, caving the straw or grass all standing. It weighs two hundred and fifty pounds, is drawn by one horse, and gathers from ten to twelve acres per day. The fingers, or teeth, enten all the heads, the revolving knives cut them off and throw them back into the box, which will cross a twenty-acre field without emptying. The heads are then loaded into a wagon and taken directly to the mill for cleaning, thus diminishing the labor three-fourths, and saving all the edd. This machine comes so low that eccry firmer will have it, and pays the manufacturer 300 per cent.

E. WHEELER, Agent for Washington.

CROSS KEYS, WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, CAMDEN Co., N. J., September 4, 1851. We, the undersigned, do certify that we have seen Mr. Krauser's Patent Clover Harvester in operation, and it has given perfect satisfaction. It has gathered many of the farmers' clover in this neighborhood—it is all that Mr. Krauser's clover in this neighborhood clover in this neighborhood ser and his bills represent it to be. The farmers have give one-half for gathering and threshing.

JAMES D. TIMBERMAN, JOSEPH DEWALD, WILLIAM P. GARWOOD, WM. C. NICHOLSON, JOHN F. COOK, JAMES B. COOK,

Long-a-Coming, October 7, 1851.

This is to certify that Mr. G. J. Naylor has gathered clove off of a sixteen-acre field of mine, which has been pastures two months with ten head of cattle, and it produced sibushels and a half and one peck of seed. I gave him two thirds for gathering and cleaning. I think his machine instruct, and answers all the purpose that is intended.

The following points out the profitable nature of th

Harvester:

KRAUSER'S PATENT CLOVER-SEED HARVESTER.—
We have conversed with a number of Farmers, and they are of opinion that there are at least 3,000 acres in each township in Camden or Gloucester county, New Jørsey. Admitting there are but 1,000, it is said that each acre will yield from 1½ to 3 bushels. Reducing it to a certainty of yielding but 1 bushel per acre, what will it cost to gather and thresh 1,000 acres?

This Harvester will gather 12 acres per day. At 8 acres per day, it will take 5 harvesters 25 days, at a cost of $150 Threshing.

Cost of harvesting, &c., 1,000 acres.

Terms of gathering, on shares of one-half; which would are from the above calculation in the hands of the gathere 500 bushels. Selling it at $5 per bushel would be 2,500; deducting expenses, 5500, would leave a balance in se hands of the gatherer of $2,000. be hands of the gatherer of $2,000.

In a county where there are but 8 townships, deduct 3 and nultiply the $2,000 by 5 would be $10,000.

We believe the above calculation to be indisputable. From he numerous farmers with whom we have consulted, we have found them to agree unanimously with the above calculation.

have found them to agree unanimously with the above carquiation.

Perhaps no invention offers greater inducements for a profitable investment than the Harvester. For an enterprising young man, of good business habits, a large sum of money could without doubt be realized from the sale of rights in the different States of the Union not yet disposed of. By calling at this office, it can be demonstrated satisfactorily that men of moderate capital could not choose a better or more money-paying besiness.

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH.

Whig National Convention!

THURSDAY-EVENING SESSION. The Convention was called to order at 6 o'clock The President stated the question before the ody to be on the substitute offered by Mr. Ewing for the second resolution of Mr. Duncan. Mr. Ewing's substitute is as follows: Resolved, That the committee shall consist of one delegate from each State, selected by the lelegates of said State.

Mr. Jessup moved to amend this as follows: "That each member of said Committee on Resolutions shall be entitled to vote so many votes as the State he represents is entitled to in the

which had been adopted as an amendment to Mr. Duncan's resolution. A point of order having been raised, the Chair lecided the amendment of Mr. Jessup out of order. Mr. Vinton, of Ohio, appealed from the deci-

Mr. Loomis, of Pennsylvania, argued against the decision of the Chair. After much confusion, the amendment was again read, and the Chair reversed his decision, deciding the amendment to be in order.

Mr. Jessup said: I desire to state in a few vords the object of my proposition. I think the nterests of the great Whig party of the whole Union are involved in this subject. No one who knows us can be disposed to doubt the attachment of Pennsylvania to the constitution and the compromises of the constitution, and to all proper and legitimate laws and legislation under that constitution. Pennsylvania will never hesitate n giving her cordial and earnest support to all constitutional laws. [Applause.]

Pennsylvania has been misrepresented, and because she has been misrepresented her position ias been misunderstood. Other States-New York and Ohio-had been misrepresented, and the character of their delegates was misunderstood. I desire, in the organization of this Committee on Resolutions, to avoid having offered to us resolutions of an extreme character, such as nay be unpleasant to any portion of the delegates to this Convention. I desire, if we are to have resolutions, that the committee should fairly represent the great conservative character of the Convention, and present to us resolutions of a conservative nature, upon which we could all agree. This committee, thus organized, with each State fully and fairly represented, will meet n harmony, in union, and in a desire to further he interests of the whole Whig party. Gentlemen surely misunderstand the character of the Pennsylvania delegation, if they suppose we have any other object. The Whigs of the middle porion of the Union-of the States of New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania-are as sound upon every question as our Southern brethren can desire. Great applause.]

Mr. Robert Stanard, of Virginia, considered his among the most important questions which could be brought before the Convention. He was happy to hear of the conservative character of the middle States, as alluded to by the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

Mr. Dawson, of Georgia, said, in the course of his remarks: I hope all will speak without excitement and with deliberation. I agree with my friend from Virginia that the attempt is made to convert this country into the wildest sort of democracy-the democracy of numbers. For the first time, the large States presume to control the sovereignty of the States. The principle contended for will uproot your constitution, and from the contested districts of New York. Also the sovereign character of the States will be that Harburger and Smith be both admitted to prostrated to numbers. [Applause.] The little seats from the thirty-first district of New York, State of Rhode Island is entitled to the same nower, in virtue of her sovereignty, as either of the great States of New York, Pennsylvania, or in Vermont. Ohio; and yet the conservative party of the country are asked that numbers shall be given, and not the sovereignty of the States. I know the subject has not been properly considered by the Fillmore men.

Vhig party. I desire no discussion, but seek to impress apon the Whigs an adherence to principle, and to ursue the old practises marked out from the day ou called this Convention.

A New York delegate here asked whether the States are represented in their senatorial as well

Mr. Ashmun said: We are all prematurely getting excited on what, I think, is rather an mmaterial question.

Let this Convention be organized, and then proceed to the despatch of business; and now I propose that the Convention, with a view of giving the Committee on Credentials further time, adjourn until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. This was agreed to by acclamation, and an adournment was announced, while a delegate was crying lustily for a vote by States.

The nomination of General Pierce, like that of that already published and approved by the Mr. Polk, has been very suprising to many of South the Democratic party; but their total disregard of their former preferences of men and couvictions of principle has been still more surprising to the rest of the world. The voters of the Western States will not and cannot yield to him their support. He has never later news. been their friend, but has, with marked contancy, evinced decided hostility to their most vital interests. Yet even in the West, the Demperatic papers, regardless of everything but party uccess and the rewards it promises, no sooner hear the name of the nominee of their party than they raise a shout of welcome to him as their approved and chosen leader! Thus we find the Vincennes (Indiana) Sentinel heralding in triumph the announcement that "General John A.
